JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THE RHINE FRONTIER.

By an inspection of the map of Western Europe, and the geographical relations of France and Prussia, attention is at once drawn to three principal points, viz: the position of the fortresses which are between the eastern frontier of France and the line of the Rhine; the route which is naturally laid open by these fortresses to the heart of France, and the routes which connect these same fortresses with the great centres of Germany. When the importance of these strongholds is understood, and when it is remembered that they are in the possession of Prussia it becomes easy to understand why France should be glad of any pretext to justify her in making an attempt to get control of them. As the famous Italian Quadrilateral was to the Austrians, so is this German Quadrilateral to the Prussians. It enables them to repel invasion and to resist any sudden attack, while it reserves for them a base of operations which is as favorable for them as could well be conceived or desired. The four great fortified points were, until 1868, Coblentz, Cologne, Mentz, and Luxemburg, but in that year the latter was dismantled by the Prussians, very unwillingly, and only on the strong representation of the other Powers, which insisted on the fulfilment of the treaty of Prague, one provision of which was, also, the abandonment of the fortress of Mentz or Mayence, which has not been complied with to this day by Prussia. Luxembourg having been partially dismantled, the Prussians have since fortified Saar Louis, Germersheim and Landau, which in a very short time can be placed in a solid attitude, and which in reality form but one place, and made to take the position recently occupied by Luxembourg. Mentz commands the entrance to the river Main and covers Frankfort. Coblentz commands the Moselle, while Cologne and Ehrenbreitsein commands the Rhine at their respective positions. In addition to these strongholds the Prussians have planned an entrenched camp at Treves. Such is the German Quadrilateral, which is so situated, moreover, that a Prussian army sheltered within it would be able to attack in flank or rear a French army entering Germany through Baden or Rhenish Bavaria; while, on the other hand, the road to Paris is comparatively undefended. By way of Saar-Louis, Germersheim and Landau, Prussia can launch all the forces she has accumulated behind the Rhine, between Coblentz and Mentz, directly upon the feeble points of the French frontier between Strasburg and Mentz, leaving Alsatia isolated by the Vosges, and turning Mentz by the route through Nancy, she may march direct upon Paris.

It should not be forgotten that Coblentz is connected with Mayence by a double line of railway on either side of the Rhine, and that Cologne is also connected with Coblentz by railway and by the Rhine itself; that from Mayence troops can be sent to Germersheim by two different railways, and that the line which runs from Saar-Louis divides into two branches, the one leading to Mayence and Coblentz, the other to Germersheim and Landau. And further, that a line has been completed three-fourths of the way direct from Mayence to Landau, and lines are in progress direct from Coblentz to Treves, and from Cologne to the same place. From all this it is evident that Prussia has been preparing. Looking at Germany, we find railways uniting the three gates of the Rhine, Cologne, Coblentz and Mayence, with Berlin, Dresden and Cassel, the centres of the North German Confederation. The ordinary garrison of what has here been called the German Quadrilateral is composed of fifty-four battalions of infantry, with cavalry and artillery in proportion, and it can be doubled in brief time, by drawing troops from the adjoining military centres. In a few days, by drawing from Berlin and Dresden the troops accumulated there, 300,000 men can be massed behind the Rhine, between Cologne and Mayence, and 200,000 can be sent to the fortresses which form the salient points of this vast encampment. Therefore, unless the French are very rapid in their movements they will be exposed to a flank attack, no matter which route they take.

Times are changed since 1792 and 1806, when Prussia was ruled by timid princes, and her armies were mismanaged by incompetent men like the Duke of Brunswick. So far as can be at present known the combatants meet on nearly equal terms, the Prussians, however, having the advantage as to position. Should the war last any time, it will render more than ever apparent the fact that the neutrality of Belgium is a source of inconvenience, if not of danger, to France. Were that little kingdom a part of the French Empire the road to Berlin would be much more accessible to a French army than it is at present.

THE NORTH CAROLINA OUTRAGES.—One Colonel Kirk, of the radical militia of North Carolina, is committing a series of outrages on peaceful conservatives in that State. He has declared martial law in Alamance county, arrested many leading citizens and organized military commissions to try them. They were seized without warrants, and the charges against them are unknown. A Raleigh telegram of the 18th says: "There is no insurrection or resistance to the civil law in this State." Our North Carolina exchanges up to date afford no clue to the mystery. North Carolina, so far as we are advised, is one of the most peaceful and orderly State in the Union. The radical Governor Holden must be held ultimately responsible for these high handed measures—doubtless undertaken to advance the political interests of himself and associates. The operations of Kirk remind us of the wanton wrongs inflicted on parts of the South by United States troops in recent days; and illustrate the long protracted pernicious effects of a detestable example. We shall see whether President Grant sympathizes with the infamous course of the North Carolina radical authorities, or interposes the military protection required of him by the Constitution for the safety of the conservative citizens of North Carolina.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

The METROPOLITAN RECORD.—is making fun of the little unpleasantness between Grant and his now recalled Minister Motley.

Now for the next fight. When Congress meets again, no doubt there will be other quarrels to settle. We should not be at all surprised, the Record adds, if Frelinghuysen got into hot water before he hobnobbed six months with the British aristocracy.

HOLDEN, POOL, SETTLE AND COMPANY.

The extraordinary and lawless conduct of Gov. Holden is only surpassed by the venality of purpose had in view by it. He pretends that his purpose is to suppress the Ku Klux for murdering and whipping Union men. We are free to say that offenders of this sort ought to be punished, and to the full extent of the law; but not only these; Union League offenders ought to be brought to justice, too, and when the offenses perpetrated by these organizations respectively are ascertained and they and others convicted, it will be found that there are as many of the one kind as the other, if indeed the Union league offenders are not largely in excess. But much as these offenders are to be condemned by every one, and severely as they ought to be punished for their crimes, we undertake to say, that the number of offenders has been greatly exaggerated by parties not interested in the peace and good order of society, but in keeping up partizan strife at home, and misrepresenting the people of the State at the North, and especially to the authorities of the Federal Government.

This is true beyond question; if a Commission of inquiry could be established, we could make this statement true to the letter by the sworn testimony of hundreds and thousands of men whose veracity is undoubted, and this testimony would be given by Republicans as well as Conservatives and Democrats. We know this to be true, and the worthless miscreants who assert the contrary, know it to be true.

A colored man was hanged at Graham; this was a great crime; it was murder, and whoever did it ought to answer for his or their crime. Stephens was killed—murdered, under circumstances of great mystery, and whoever committed the crime ought to pay the penalty of his or their crime. So the McLeods, of Cumberland, were killed under the most atrocious circumstances, and the author of these murders ought to be punished. The negro, Outlaw, and Stephens were Radicals, but it is not denied that both of them were persons of disreputable character—especially Stephens. The McLeods were Conservatives, and it is not denied that they were citizens of exemplary character for sobriety and good citizenship. Several other like offenses have been committed, more by murderous Union Leaguers than by Ku Klux. We say this is so; and if the facts can be ascertained by a competent tribunal it will so appear.

Now, let us see what has been done by those who have sought to make political capital out of Ku Klux outrages. Before it was certainly known in this city that Stephens was killed, interested political agents here telegraphed the fact to our Senators in Washington, and they had the telegram read in open Senate. All this to create excitement and prejudice against the people of the State. A like parade was made in the Standard newspaper about the negro hung at Graham. But what notice, on the other hand, was taken by the same parties of the murder of the McLeods? None whatever for days after the facts had been known and discussed by almost every intelligent man in the State.

The Governor of the State forthwith issued a flaming and exciting proclamation about the murder of the negro and of Stephens, but for a long time he took no notice whatever of the murder of the McLeods, and then issued the ordinary proclamation offering reward, &c.

Now, why this discrimination? Why this exciting and flaming parade on one side and silence on the other?

But there is more about this matter: Did the Governor order a Court in Caswell to try to ascertain the murderers of Stephens? Did he order a Court at Graham, as it was his duty to do, to ascertain and punish the murderers of the negro? He did no such thing and no effort was made in that behalf; no civil authority was invoked in either case at the hands of the Courts.—These are facts which can be proved without the slightest difficulty. The murderers were not known, and therefore there ought to have been the greater diligence and effort. But the murderers of the McLeods are and were known. They were murdered by one Graham and a negro, both members of the Union League, and most desperate characters for crime. They killed the McLeods under circumstances most atrocious and appalling.

This fellow Graham is the same villain whose deposition the Governor had taken to implicate several of the best men in Moore County with the Ku Klux, and which he himself was forced to repudiate as glaringly false, after the murder of the McLeods. The Governor says nothing of this murder; it is a matter of trifling moment with him. And we may add that the murder of the negro and of Stephens are likewise trifling matters to him, outside of the political capital he can make of them.

We have put these cases to show how these grave matters are treated by the Governor and his co-workers. And we repeat that we can establish the truth of what we say, by thousands of truthful men of the State, and by Republicans as well as Democrats. We can do this and the Governor knows it.

But there is another view of the subject: These alleged outrages of the Ku Klux were perpetrated months and months ago. If the Governor and his co-workers are sincere, how is it they have delayed the military assembly until now, just before the election. Can any reasonable excuse be given for this sudden military move? None has been given, and none can be given. The facts are, the interposition of the Courts has never been invoked by the Governor, and he knows it; and he knows the reason why this is so. He knows that he and John Pool and Thomas Settle, as principals, and a few others as their subordinates, have deliberately and on purpose, seized upon the shameful pretext of Ku Klux outrage, to call into existence, just at this time, no matter at what expense to the people of the State in treasure or human life, an army to terrorize over the people and thereby control the election, or force a conflict of violence and defeat the election altogether.

These horrid mischief makers know this as well as we; they know the whole military movement is the result of horrid and murderous conspiracy to control or defeat the election, and if they were indicted for it before a fair jury, they might easily be convicted of a crime worthy only of a fiend.

These men know as well as we, that there has been no resistance to civil authority or process anywhere in the State; none in Caswell; none to Alamance; they know this fact, and yet they have, through the Governor, put these two counties under the heel of a despotism, in time of peace, that has no parallel in the annals of American history. We want the good people of Caswell and Rockingham and Alamance, to know that they are much, very much indebted to Mr. Judge Thomas Settle for the suffering and outrages they have suffered and are suffering. We can prove what we here say, and will do it at the proper time. If we have said what is not true, let these conspirators indict or sue us, and we will prove what we say.

These defiant conspirators, in carrying out the details of their diabolical conspiracy, have openly upset the Constitution and laws of this State and the United States.—This array of despotism has no sanction of law; it is defiance of law, and they openly go to the Treasury and take the people's money to enslave them with.

We call upon the good people of all parties to say what they think of this. We call upon the good people of the North, of all parties, to say what they think of it.

This army is organized, and many of as good men as there are in the State or Union are arrested without warrant or any lawful authority, and are held as close prisoners for an indefinite period, and for no one knows what, except that they know that it is to gratify the malignity of the vile upstarts who have set this conspiracy on foot. They say they expect to strike terror into the people by thus outraging the leading and best citizens. That is their policy, and they make bold to say they are backed by the President and dare the people to resist their tyranny and crime, and tell them if they do, the President will devastate the country.

We have asserted time and again that the President could not be a party to such crime; but, if he has made any such promise, the people here ought to know it, and the people of the Union ought to know it. Here is a Governor who defies the Courts and the writ of habeas corpus, organizes an army, not militia, without any sanction of law, but in defiance of the State Constitution and laws, and the Constitution and laws of the United States, and tells the people he is backed by the President!

What we have said is true, and we can prove it, and will do it if we can get an opportunity. Let the people here and everywhere consider of what we say.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

In the case of McAden vs. the Treasurer, the Chief Justice delivered an opinion this morning, refusing to vacate or modify the injunction restraining the Treasurer from receiving from the Wilmington and Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad company State bonds known as "special tax bonds," in lieu of the half million of first mortgage bonds of the company, held by the Treasurer as indemnity to the State against loss on account of the endorsement of $1,000,000 of the first mortgage bonds of the company. The opinion is a long, well considered one, and sustains fully the opinion delivered on the 2nd inst., when the injunction was granted.

HILLSBORO', July 23.

GOV. HOLDEN: Sir—Your sending troops for the protection of my family, and your telegram asking for the particulars of the assassins firing into my house, will justify me in the eyes of the world, in continuing a correspondence with a man who has fallen so far below contempt. I know the grand resources of a restless, guilty mind, like yours, are fraud, craft and intrigue.—Guilt never leaves the guilty the free exercise of their understanding. The guilty are sure to make an attempt to call in prudence and even virtue to the service of their wicked plans. In the end it is sure to put them into confusion and lead to their detection. Any Judge will tell you that the attempt of guilt to make virtue hide its acts, have been the cause of the detection of half the villians in the world.

You have organized your State troops to intimidate the white men in the coming election. I have a letter from a Republican from Washington, telling me so, and I have other and better proof of it.

You have taken back your telegram, and authorized your son to say that you never sent it. Now, to make me believe you never sent the telegram, you must take back your troops and deny that you sent them for my protection. Col. Clarke came with the troops and said they were sent for my protection and that of my family.

If you would send the troops why would you not send the inquiring telegram for "particulars?" They are both virtuous acts of themselves, and are praise worthy, unless used by guilt in furtherance of fraud and crime.

I know you did not send the troops for my protection, or you would have sent better men, whose conduct and conversation would not tend to my destruction and assassination.

Last Friday many of the men you sent, with the Captain and Lieutenant, were drunk in our streets. The Captain and Lieutenant were so drunk as to call in horse power to get to camp. They cursed me among the negroes as you speak of me to your friend Hawk Rogers and others, as King of the Ku Klux. Your drunken soldiers cursed Mrs. Turner as Queen of the Ku Klux, and the keeper of their books.

On Saturday the streets were beset with your drunken soldiers, and the town made hideous with their drunken curses and broils. While we were telling the people about your arrests, through Kirk, of the Presbyterians, Methodists, Baptists and Episcopalians of Alamance and Caswell. I saw the civil law take three of your drunken soldiers and put them in jail. It is proper that I about inform you, that I told the people that it was you and not Kirk who knocked Mr. Frank Wiley senseless with a rail for asking by what authority you arrested him. One of my friends proposed to whip the whole company. But I told him you sent them here for a fight, but you should be disappointed.

I believe the tall man I saw going to jail can beat your Excellency cursing and blaspheming your Maker. I know, your Excellency, military duty will not give you time for the perusal of a long letter, so I will conclude this by defying you to resist Chief Justice Pearson's order, and you shall be taught that Kirk's bayonets are not as strong as the constitution or the moral sense of the people.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr.

REMEMBER THIS FACT.

G. W. Swepson was President of the Western Division of the Western North Carolina Railroad, and received seven million of dollars in bonds, which he and Littlefield appropriated to their own use.

The Governor issued a proclamation ordering Swepson to come to Raleigh, and account for the bonds, according to an act of the [illegible].

Swepson came while the committee of the Whole was investigating the matter.

Swepson went to see Holden and had a long talk with him. Billy Smith was in the city.

The next night Billy Smith sent a special train for Swepson and took him off out of the reach of the law.

This we can prove if denied.

For the Sentinel.

GREENSBORO', N. C., July 19, 1870.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., Esq.:

Dear Sir:—I wish to have brought before the minds of all, who influence the management of our Railroads, the importance of cheapening transportation.

The annual meetings of Stockholders, to be held in this month, may be considered, by some, the most appropriate time and place for such views to be presented; but remembering that these meetings are usually held but one day, and that is almost entirely consumed with the ordinary routine of business, (electing Directors, reports of officers, &c.,) and that the interruption of this order of things is regarded by some as an intrusion, I have concluded to commit some of my thoughts to paper and ask the favor of you to publish the same, at as early a day next week as possible and request the Standard to copy.

HOW SHALL THE RESOURCES OF NORTH CAROLINA BE DEVELOPED?

The circumstances by which we are now surrounded press upon our consideration a question which has always occupied the attention of our wisest men, namely, how shall the resources of North Carolina be developed and her wealth be increased?

Agriculture, Manufactures and Commerce are leading pursuits; and they are not only the principal branches of business, but they are mutually dependent upon each other for prosperity.

As a general rule that community will be most prosperous which is most industrious and enterprising, and whose capital and labor are most judiciously expended.—Where there is the freest and fairest competition among the citizens, untrammelled by invidious class legislation, unhampered by odious discriminating monopolies, this prosperity will be the most healthful and permanent.

It is a great mistake to suppose that the interests of the farmer, the merchant and the manufacturer are antagonistic. They are identical, and though the State should never unwisely intervene to check or stimulate special branches of business, still it may wisely do a great deal to foster the general interests of the commonwealth, by opening new channels of communication and attracting capital and labor from abroad. There can be little doubt that a reasonable diversity of pursuit is largely promotive of the general welfare.

All classes of citizens are equally interested in the all important question of easy, rapid, cheap transportation. The State, in years past, has wisely expended large sums of money on her canals, rivers, and Railways.

The farmer and the manufacturer want a good market for the products of their toil. How do they get it? By cheap transportation. The merchant, if he is thrifty; wants to follow the old rule of "quick sales and small profits." How is this result secured? By rapid transit and a low tariff of freights. A judicious expenditure of capital in some branch of manufacturing industry requiring skilled labor makes a thriving town. A still further outlay in opening avenues of communication doubles the size of the town. The policy of the Southern States and of Southern Statesmen must be changed if we do not wish to render our seaports mere tributaries to those of the North.—We should remember that the first steamer that ever crossed the Atlantic, sailed from a Southern port and was owned by Southern men. A very large proportion of the exports from the United States grow upon Southern soil, and yet the South having neglected her facilities for ship-building, own but few of the vessels engaged in our coasting trade, and participate to a very limited extent in the benefits from our foreign commerce.

What can we, the Stockholders of one of the most important roads in the State of North Carolina, and other managers of Railroads, do to aid in developing the resources of the State and the promotion of the general welfare? Much every way, and more than any one else. We can reduce fares and freights to the lowest possible living point, quit discriminating against our own citizens, and our own towns, and in favor of aliens and non residents and far distant cities. If we have any favors to dispense let them be shown to the people of the old North State, who expended so much and lost so much in building these roads and other improvements. How can manufactures flourish among us when it costs far less to send an article from New Jersey, or Sandusky Ohio, to Mobile or Montgomery Alabama, than from Greensboro' N. C., to the same points? Or how can a manufacturer of cotton at Jamestown, N. C., compete with a similar establishment located in New York City, when he is charged ($3 70) three dollars and seventy cents freight on a bale of cotton from Augusta, Ga., to Jamestown, and ($3 36) three dollars and thirty six cents on same, from thence, to New York City, making ($7 06) seven dollars and six cents per bale, freight, while over the same line the New York firm are charged only ($4 25) four dollars and twenty five cents per bale, making a difference of two dollars and eighty one cents per bale, or twenty eight hundred and ten dollars per annum against a citizen of North Carolina, who consumes one thousand bales a year, and in favor of a non resident?

Are our farming interests promoted, by the following schedule of rates to Greensboro', N. C., and other places South and West of us?

Cost per bushel of transporting wheat and corn from New York City to various points South, and of bacon per hundred pound, and of flour per barrel.

| | Wheat per bushel, | Corn per bushel, |
|---|---|---|
| To Greensboro', | 37½ | 35 |
| " New Orleans, | 17½ | 20 |
| " Charlotte, N. C., | 46½ | 44 |
| " Wilmington, N. C., | 50 | 47 |
| " Selma, Ala., | 40 | 37 |
| " Savannah, Ga., | 45 | 43 |
| " Macon, Ga., | 32 | 28 |
| " Chattanooga, Tenn | 29 | 24 |

| | Flour per bbl. | Bacon per 100 lb. |
|---|---|---|
| To Greensboro', | $1 94 | $1 10½ |
| " New Orleans, | 30 | 20 |
| " Charlotte, N. C., | 1 51 | 88½ |
| " Wilmington, N. C., | 1 55 | 1 00 |
| " Selma, Ala., | 1 20 | 82½ |
| " Savannah, Ga., | 1 35 | 81½ |
| " Macon, Ga., | 1 20 | 74½ |
| " Chattanooga, Tenn. | 1 15 | 63½ |

Most business men South are kept advised of the rates to Northern cities, but our own Railroad Agent could not give us the cost of transporting a barrel of flour or any other article, (except tobacco) from Greensboro', N. C. to Wilmington, N. C., Newbern, N. C. or any other city or town South of Charlotte, N. C., and gave as a reason that he had no through rates to any point South on any article except tobacco.

He knew the freight on a barrel of flour from Greensboro to Goldsboro, N. C. was sixty-four cents; and to Boston, Mass., it was ($1 85) one dollar and thirty five cents per barrel, but below Goldsboro was a matter of conjecture.

I was recently informed that some persons in our State engaged in mining were charged 25 cents per bushel for transporting corn 25 or 30 miles. Is this a fair specimen of the inducements which are held out to encourage capitalists and laborers to settle in North Carolina? We make it a good place to go from instead of a good place to come to. We repel both labor and capital instead of attracting them. This short sighted, ruinous, suicidal policy must be abandoned. Of what avail are our superior climate, our fertile soil, our mineral resources, our abundant water power, if all our business interests are fettered and manacled by intolerably high rates of transportation and an odious and oppressive discrimination against them? Away with these embargoes upon our own trade. Let us have at least a fair chance and free competition. Let us not drive off useful citizens from us as though it were a crime to live in the State. No influence can effect so much for the promotion of the material prosperity of our good old commonwealth, as the policy pursued by the leading railroads, is the opinion of your obedient servant,

M. A. CALDWELL.

The "Utley Cotton Press."

So well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my agents Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern.
THOS. H. BRIGGS.

Read Certificates below.

PITTSBORO', N. C., May 9th, 1870.

T. H. BRIGGS, Esq.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press," I purchased from you last season, and consider it to be the best Press I ever saw. Having packed bales to weigh from five hundred and ninety (590) to six hundred and twelve pounds (612.) I consider it the best and most durable Press I ever saw used, and can cheerfully recommend its use to the farmers of North Carolina.
Yours truly, C. W. BYNUM.

FRANKLINTON, N. C., April 18th, 1870.

MR. THOMAS H. BRIGGS: Dear Sir:—Yours of 13th instant inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" is to hand, and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the gain upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with.
Yours very respectfully,
JAS. A. WILDER.

RIVER LAWN, CUMBERLAND Co., N. C., April 22nd, 1870.

THOS. H. BRIGGS, Esq: Dear Sir.—In reply to yours of the 15th asking how I was pleased with the Utley Press I used last season, I would say that it gave entire satisfaction.
Respectfully yours,
CHAS. H. BLOCKER.

HILLSBORO', N. C., April 22nd, 1870.

THOS. H BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Sir—I have used "Utley's Cotton Press" for baling hay for some months. It works well and gives entire satisfaction. I regard it as the best Hay Press I have seen.
Respectfully,
R. H. FOGUE.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 18th, 1870.

T. H BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press" I purchased from you last season. I packed my own crop of cotton, also other crops for my neighbors, making in all one hundred bales. I consider it superior in all respects to any Press I have ever seen and that it is every thing the patentee represents, I packed bales weighing from four hundred to five hundred and ninety-seven pounds.
Yours truly, W. T. HOWLE.

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all their really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

ANNUITY BONDS,

HERETOFORE, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this State, who Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the Excelsior forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and large assets certainly entitle her to occupy.

Notice a change of three degrees in two hours.

Col. JOHN CRAIG, Conservative candidate for the Senate, will address the people of Person County at Holloway's on the 27th inst., at Woodsdale on the 28th, and at Roxboro on the 30th.

REGISTER! REGISTER!!

There is but little over a week to the day of election. Every voter in Wake county must register or he cannot vote. Don't neglect it a day, but register, and then go quietly to the polls and cast your vote against the corruptions and oppressions; the military humbugs and high taxations that are grinding you to the earth and eating up the products of your labor.

REFUSES.

Just as we go to press we learn that Gov. Holden refuses to obey the writ of habeas corpus, and declares his intention to hold the Alamance and Caswell prisoners.

MORE COTTON BOLLS.—Through Mr. Leo. H. Adams, Commission Merchant of this city, we learn from the farm of Col. W. W. Johnston, of Johnston county, a cotton limb containing three bolls, the largest nearly mature and ready to open.—We suppose it would have ripened in two weeks if left on the stalk.

DON'T BE OFFENDED.—The crowded state of our columns forces us to forego the publication of many communications sent us. We hope the Writers will not be offended if their favors do not appear.

We have some communications on hand written on both sides of the paper—these we cannot publish—we have given notice time and again that we could not publish such. We have some also without the writers names, these share the same fate.

What we want is short communications stating facts, we will comment on them if necessary. Nobody reads long communications in a newspaper.

APOLOGETIC.—Our Weekly edition ran short this week, and we have been obliged to supply the deficiency to some twenty or thirty subscribers with Dailies. This is the best we can do. We will try not to be caught again; it was owing to the large influx of new subscribers after the first side of the paper was worked off.

TO THE GERMANS OF RALEIGH.—The Germans of this city are invited to attend a meeting to be held at Mr. M. Schloss', formerly Joseph's Restaurant, on Wednesday, July 27th, at 8 o'clock, P. M., where they will be addressed by the Rev. Jno. M. Brandt, D. D., of Goldsboro', on the subject of education. Come one come all!

REV. J. L. M. CURRY, LL. D.—This distinguished pulpit orator will deliver a sermon next Sabbath morning, before the Young Men's City Mission of the Raleigh Baptist Church. On Monday night he will address the citizens of Raleigh, on the subject of "Collegiate Education," in the Baptist Church.

PRATT'S ASTRAL OIL.—We have been using this oil for two or three weeks, and find it superior to any light material we have yet used. Mr. Julius Lewis is the Agent here, and he has had the oil tested by Prof. Kerr, State Geologist, who reports on it as follows:

GEOLOGICAL ROOMS, July 4th, 1870.

MR. JULIUS LEWIS: Dear Sir—I have submitted the sample of Pratt's Astral oil to a rigorous fire test, and find that it not only stands the usual legal test of 110 degrees, but does not flash below 130 degrees, nor burn below 145 degrees, so that I consider it perfectly safe.

Yours truly,
W. C. KERR.

NEWSPAPER CHANGE.—R. A. Shotwell Esq., has sold out the "North Carolina Citizen" to Mr. Wade Atkinson, who will hereafter publish the same, as editor and proprietor. There will be no change in its politics; it will still advocate Conservative principles, honesty and economy in the management of public affairs, and oppose the present corrupt and oppressive administration.

NEW PAPER.—We understand a new weekly paper will be started in Battleboro', on or about the 1st of September. It will be published by a joint stock Company and edited by Cicero W. Harris, Esq., formerly of the Henderson Index.

On Friday night at Beaufort, a German named Rodolphe, leader of the Wilson Brass Band, fell from the upper piazza of King's Hotel, and was injured so badly that immediate death ensued.

The deceased was intoxicated at the time of the accident.

THE NAVY PREPARING FOR CONTINGENCIES.—The Secretary of the Navy, with the assistance of Vice Admiral Porter, is issuing orders to all the navy yards, fleet commanders, and others, so as to be ready for all contingencies. There is a question as to whether the President can order the enlistment of 10,000 or 15,000 additional seamen, the repair of all the vessels now owned and building, and the purchase of others, in case of an emergency. This has been done by several Presidents, and Dr. Broadhead, the Second Comptroller, has informed the Secretary of the Navy that in such emergency he will pass the extra accounts, &c., as he did during President Lincoln's Administration. In the mean while all the resources at the disposal of the Navy Department are being placed in active operation.

PUBLIC MEETING IN ORANGE.

At a large and enthusiastic meeting held in Orange, on Saturday the 24th of July, the following resolutions were offered by Josiah Turner, Jr., and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the people of Orange, from their earliest history have been renowned for their love of order and constitutional liberty.

Resolved, That the Sheriff could at any time and can now execute the civil law.

Resolved, That we are willing and ready to aid the Sheriff in the arrest of any citizen of the county who shall resist and refuse obedience to the laws.

Resolved, That drunken soldiers of Holden's State troops, quartered among us in time of profound peace, and on the eve of an excited election, is in violation of the Constitution and every sentiment of civil liberty.

Resolved, That there can be no good government, no security for person or property where the writ of habeas corpus is not maintained, respected and obeyed.

Resolved, That the delay of Chief Justice Pearson in giving relief to the Methodists, Baptists, Presbyterians and Episcopalians who are imprisoned by Governor Holden, without the shadow of authority of law, ill comports with his conduct and character on former occasions.

Resolved, That it was the duty of Chief Justice Pearson to attach Kirk for contempt when he dared to tell him "that such papers" meaning the habeas corpus, had played out.

Resolved, That the constitutional rights of the people are stronger than Kirk and his bayonets.

Resolved, That the moral sentiment of the country is sufficient to arrest Kirk without arms as soon as the Judge shall issue his attachment for contempt.

Resolved, That if Chief Justice Pearson shall issue an order for the arrest of Kirk, and the release of his Christian prisoners, there are Methodists, Baptists, Presbyterians and Episcopalians, who without arms will march for the relief of their brethren in prison, and bring them to the Judge.

Resolved, That if it be true as Kirk said that he who would "exercise arbitrary power is an enemy to God and man," then Holden and Kirk are already condemned.

Resolved, That we want no coalition with Holden's negro or white troops, and we will have none.

Resolved, That since the appearance of his troops we are more determined to vote than ever, and with the ballot and public sentiment put down this enemy of civil liberty, God and man.

For the Sentinel.

THOMASVILLE, N. C., July 22, 1870.

Editor Sentinel:—Yesterday was an auspicious day for conservatism in this part of the vineyard.

Notwithstanding the extremely busy season, our farming community was out in full force, not only from this township but from other townships, numbering, in all, very little less than five hundred voters. Almost to a man they looked determined, they talked determined and they are determined to throw off and come from under the oppressive military radical dynasty. All seemed to manifest a spirit of loathing and contempt for his ex-hellency and his military satraps.

The candidates of both parties discussed the leading issues and questions which involve the interests and welfare of the people, and as each Radical concluded his remarks he was asked by some voter if he would, under any circumstances, support Holden for the U. S. Senate, the Commoners, each for himself, answered positively no. But when the candidate for the Senate, Mr. Allen, was interrogated on the same subject he answered rather evasively.

But very little interest or appreciation was manifested by the hearers while the Radical candidates were speaking, but when our Conservative advocates commenced to pour volly after volly of hot shot into their rotten, rickety and crumbling fortifications driven by the powerful force of truth, the broad honest smiles and low smothered chuckles of sun-browned faces showed plainly who was most entitled, in their opinions, to their suffrage on the 4th of August, 1870. Capt. F. C. Robbins, Conservative candidate for the Senate occupied the stand for nearly an hour, during which time he so completely unfolded and disclosed to his attentive hearers the numerous rascalities and high handed villainies of Radicalism, that all seemed thankful that the event was so near at hand when an opportunity would favor them in ridding the country of an evil so dangerous to their interests and destructive to liberty.

Hastily,
D.

The Life Sustaining Principle.

The vital and the muscular systems are entirely distinct from each other. A man may have the brawn of a Hercules, but if he is deficient in vital energy he will not wear as well, or last as long or be as healthy and happy while he does last, as the man of ordinary, or even slender build, who possesses a larger share of this animating principle. One of the greatest recommendations of that pure vegetable invigorant, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is that it increases the vital forces of the system. No medicine can double the volume of a man's muscle, or thicken and vulcanize his thews and sinews; but Hostetter's Bitters has an effect much more important. Its use promotes constitutional vigor. It reinforces the life-power, of which bone and sinew and muscle are merely the instruments, holding the same relation to it that machinery does to steam. Let the slight and apparently fragile take heart, they may have more stamina, though far less physical strength, than the broad shouldered athletes they regard with envy. To restore, to sustain, to increase this staminal principal which, when in full supply, is the source of health and the best guarantee of longevity, is a special property of the famous restorative. It is not only a specific for dyspepsia, biliousness, intermittent fevers, constipation, &c., and a preventive of all diseases of a malarious character, but the best of all medicines for strengthening the constitution and awakening the powers of nature from whatever cause they may have become lethargic.

Monday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—The state Department has official notice that France is the present war adhere to the declaration of Paris as well as in regard to the United states as to other powers, especially Prussian property in American bottoms will be respected unless contraband, and American property will be respected in Prussian bottoms.

Revenue to day $240,000.

Rear Admiral Turner, comman ing the Pacific Squadron, sailed from Calaco for San Francisco to turn over the command to Admiral Winslow.

Majors George A. and James W. Forsyth, aids to company Sheridan to Europe.

Captain Shufeldt will command the survey of the Nicaragua and Tehauntepec ship canal, for which thirty thousand dollars was appropriated.

Five vessels will be added to the European squadron.

Neither Prussia nor France will be allowed to purchase vessels or war supplies in this country.

UTAH.

SALT LAKE CITY, July 25.—Last night at a reception given by Col Findlay Anderson to General Augur and staff, a large crowd of Mormons gathered in front of the house, and insulted the Colonel and his guests, and finally broke up the party.

George Crouiers, a prominent member of the anti-Brigham Young government was found dead to-day. It is said that he committed suicide.

MASSACHUSETTS.

BOSTON, July 25.—Two men were killed by the fall of the railroad grain elevator at Lowell. Three are said to have been buried in the ruins.

FOREIGN.

DUBLIN, July 25.—The sympathy of Ireland is almost unanimously with France. Large meetings were held at Dublin, Cork and elsewhere in Ireland yesterday, at which strong resolutions in favor of France were adopted.

FLORENCE, July 25.—The Italian Chambers passed a law authorizing the negotiation of a loan of six million livres.

PARIS, July 25.—A number of volunteers have already been enrolled in France.

It is tolerably certain that the Duke De Malakoff will be commander in chief of the army of the Baltic.

The Journal officiel, this morning publishes a decree closing the session of the senate and Corps Legislatif. The Journal has several other official declarations. One touching the invulnerability of the neutrality of neighboring Powers, and another in regard to the strengthening of the fortifications of France.

It is reported to-day that the Emperor has gone to Cherbourg to visit the fleet.

It is now said that the Emperor will go to the front about next Thursday.

No report of a battle has yet been received, indeed none is expected for several days.

LONDON, July 25.—The Morning Telegraph to-day, prints in large type, a communication receiving an interview had with the Emperor Napoleon a fortnight ago. The Emperor had no thought of making war on Prussia; he was still unprepared, but France was slipping from his hands, and in order to rule he must lead France to war. The Emperor related the contents of dispatches between himself and Bismarck, claiming that the latter wanted too much and wanted it too soon. The Emperor demanded Luxemburg in 1867 as an equivalent for his neutrality in Prussia's contest with Austria. Bismarck replied by demanding Holland as an equivalent for Luxemburg. The Emperor replied to this demand of Bismarck, that should the independence of Holland be attacked by Prussia, it would be regarded as a declaration of war. Count Benedetti was present at this interview when these facts were elicited.

The French base of operations extends from Strasbourg to Thionville, a few miles north of Metz. The centre is between Bitsenche and St. Arnold. The second line is at Metz capable of expansion to the centre and to Thionville.

BERLIN July 25.—Yesterday, Sunday, a body of Prussians crossed the frontier near Saarbruck. They penetrated into the country several miles and at length found the French in considerable force near the town of Gersweiler. Sharp skirmishing ensued between the forces. The French soon retired, leaving ten killed and wounded on the field. No loss on the Prussian side. This action has demonstrated that the needle gun is superior to the Chassepot. Subsequently a company of Prussians of the 11th regiment of the line captured the French Custom House at Schreicklingen. The officers of the Custom House made a stout resistance and were all killed or captured. One Prussian officer was slightly wounded in this engagement.

Deserters from the French army are very numerous. They are continually coming within the Prussian lines.

Tuesday Evening Dispatches.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, July 26.—There is a genuine Asiatic cholera case in Jersey City.

VIRGINIA.

FORTRESS MONROE, July 26.—Three Companies of artillery left here this morning for Raleigh, N. C., to aid the Governor to enforce the laws in that State.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, July 26.—The harvest prospects throughout England are improving daily.

The Prussians pray and fast next Wednesday.

Eleven French frigates passed Hastings yesterday steaming eastward.

It is expected that the French fleet will attack Kiel.

Reports from Mayence indicate that the Prussians are shifting their position so as to face South.

Dispatches report an insurrection in the Principality of Ava resulting in the massacre of fourteen hundred.

The excitement occasioned by the secret treaty between Prussia and France is increasing as the evidence becomes clear that the document is genuine. The journals all comment in a similar tone demanding an explanation from France of this offensive treaty. The Times particularly is seeking to make this treaty a pretext of the intervention of England in favor of Prussia. The Times asserts that the Irish sympathy for the French is altogether due to the influence of catholicism and hatred to German protestantism.

Advices from Capetown announce the discovery of new diamond fields.

News received by way of Berlin is very meagre which is due to the prudence of the Prussian Government. The telegraph is closely watched by the German authorities.

Frankfort-on-the-Main has been designated as Prussian headquarters.

DOVER, July 26.—Nine French frigates steamed past, going eastward, late yesterday. The Bluffs were crowded with people to witness the exciting scene.

MADRID July 26.—Prim had a long interview with the British minister.

A Carlist insurrection is hourly expected. The Government is prepared.

PARIS, July 26.—Napoleon stipulates to adhere to the Geneva Conference to mitigate the horrors of war. Prussia has not yet responded to the stipulation. The Journal officiel, reports the repulse of a Prussian reconnoissance near Blank, twenty-six miles northwest Strasburg. A Bavarian officer was killed and two captured.

The Figaro's account insists that the killed officer was an Englishman.

The French gunboats to operate on the Rhine and rivers in Prussia are being transported from Marseilles in sections overland.

PAIN KILLER

This Valuable Family Medicine has been widely and favorably known in our own and foreign countries upwards of

THIRTY YEARS!

It has lost none of its good name by repeated trials, but continues to occupy a prominent position in every family medicine chest.

It is an External and Internal Remedy. For Summer Complaint, or any other form of bowel disease in children or adults, it is an almost certain cure, and has without doubt, been more successful in curing the various kinds of cholera than any other known remedy, or the most skillful physicians. In India, Africa and China, where this dreadful disease is more or less prevalent the Pain Killer is considered by the natives, as well as European residents in those climates a sure remedy; and while it is the most efficient remedy for pain, it is a pure oily anodyne, even in unskillful hands. Directions accompany each bottle.

STRAYED CATTLE.

We have at our residence on the Hillsboro Road 4½ miles from Raleigh, a Cow and Calf and a Bull yearling. Said animals have been straying about in our neighborhood for the last six or eight months. The Cow is of a medium size and is of a milk and cider color, marked with a crop and two slits in the right ear and in the left a round hole slit out. The Calf is about one month old, and the yearling about one year old, not marked, color red. The owner by proving property and paying expenses can secure them at any time at my residence.

THE EQUITABLE
HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (cash received), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than TWENTY-SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863 the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" after THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends, at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with the General Agents.

A PROCLAMATION

By His Excellency the Governor of North Carolina.

Executive Department of N. C.,
RALEIGH, June 6th, 1870.

WHEREAS, Official information has been received at this Department, that a vacancy exists in the representation from this State in the Congress of the United States, caused by the resignation of Hon. JOHN T. DEWEESE, a member of the House of Representatives from the 4th Congressional District, composed of the counties of Wake, Franklin, Granville, Orange, Johnston, Nash, Chatham and Warren,
Now therefore, I, W. W. HOLDEN, Governor of the State of North Carolina, by virtue of authority vested in me by law, do issue this Proclamation, ordering an election to be held in the various counties composing said District, on the first Thursday in August next, for the purpose of filling the unexpired term of the said JOHN T. DEWEESE. It is further ordered, that said election be held in all respects in accordance with existing laws.
Done at our City of Raleigh, this 6th day [L. S.] of June, 1870, and in the 94th year of our Independence.

READ AND PONDER.

I never read a dozen pages of medicine in all my life, and of course know nothing about it. But, as I said before, Dr. Hammond is my authority for saying, that any man who smokes such good Cigars, or chews such good Tobacco, as you can find only at PINCK C. HARDIE'S need have no fear of declining health. But will, on the contrary, improve in health and increase in flesh so long as he continues to use them.
Indeed the authority of such distinguished Physicians as Dr. Hammond is not needed to convince you that I only assert what can be substantiated, by canvassing our esteemed fellow citizens, Jno. C. Palmer and Jas. M. Towles, "who never smoke," with such men as my friends Creech on the corner, Maj Tucker just opposite, Harvey Moore, of the SENTINEL and Simon Hayes, the Livery Stable man, and a host of others I could name, who use my Cigars and Tobacco.
Suffer a word of exhortation; come and see me. Try my goods, and if I don't suit you go further and fare worse.

UNPREGEDENTED SUCCESS

Medal Awarded by the Paris Exposition, 1867.

THE AMERICAN COMBINATION Button Hole & Sewing Machine

Has been honored with the highest award in premiums and diplomas wherever entered for competition at fairs and exhibitions held during the past season.
THE SIMPLICITY, EASE AND CERTAINTY with which this machine operates, as well as the uniform excellence of its work, throughout the entire range of Sewing, in Stitching, Hemming, Felling, Tucking, Cording, Braiding Quilting, Gathering & Sewing on, Overseaming, Embroidering on the Edge, and its Beautiful Button-Hole and Eyelet Hole Work.

Place it unquestionably far in absence of any other similar invention.
It is also the CHEAPEST intrinsically, as well as the BEST, since it is really TWO MACHINES combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity,) making either the Lock Stitch or Better-Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparitively noiseless, easily understood, and in a word, it combines with these ADVANTAGES, EXCLUSIVELY ITS OWN, THE MOST DESIRABLE QUALITIES OF ALL OTHERS.
The public are invited to examine this remarkable machine at MRS TOMPKINS' Boarding House, (Mrs. Thompson's old stand,) Fayetteville Street, and at Watson's Photographic Gallery.
Instructions in the use of the machine will be given to all purchasers gratis.

SWEET QUININE

Is a Recent Improvement.

Replaces the use of the BITTER SULPHATE QUININE, with which all are familiar.
Dose for dose, it is WARRANTED
Fully equal in every way to Bitter Quinine,
AND, LIKE IT, Is THE ONE
Great, Positive, and Unfailing
CURE
For all Diseases of Malarious Origin.
Fever and Ague,
Intermittent Fever,
Chill Fever,
Remittent Fever,
Bilious Fever,
Dumb Ague,

and the long train of disorders following these when neglected.

SWEET QUININE

is made solely from Peruvian Bark (so is Bitter Quinine), therefore is of Vegetable origin, and not a Mineral poison, but on the contrary is proved to be one of the elements found in the blood of all healthy persons.

SWEET QUININE

acts as an antidote to, as well as a cure for, malarial or miasmatic poison, the absorption of which by the lungs causes Intermittent Fevers, etc. The only advantage claimed for over the use of old Bitter Quinine is the entire absence of that intense, persistent bitterness, which in the latter is an insurmountable obstacle to its use with most persons, and always with children.

SWEET QUININE

is in two forms—in POWDER, for the use of Physicians and Druggists, and FLUID, for use in the family and for the general public.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN THE WORLD!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!
No more Smoke!—No more Grease!
No more Fires!!
EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.
Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!
No accidents have ever happened with it.
Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.
The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.
Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

A. BALDING'S PATENT GLASS SUBMERGED

DOUBLE-ACTING FORCE PUMP.

SUBSTITUTE FOR A FIRE ENGINE.

THIS Pump will pump 30 gallons of water per minute, will never out eat the packing, has no friction, no water ever stands in its pipes to freeze, and is less liable to get out of order than any other pump now used. It can be set up in a short time by any ordinary mechanic.
The No. 3 pump for yard wells will be sold at from $20 to $30, capable of throwing 30 gallons of water per minute. The price of No. 2 for railroad stations, throwing 60 gallons per minute, will be given upon application.
Having the exclusive right to this pump for the states of North and South Carolina, and having established a factory for the manufacture of them at Wilson, N. C., I will receive orders for them at Wilson, and will ship them by Express C. O. D., or, if the money is sent me, by the regular freight. The number of feet in the depth of the well must be given in all cases

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFF enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skil and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.
The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.
Insurers, in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important SAFEGUARD. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."
